What is Stress?

Stress, in everyday terms, is a feeling that people have when they are overloaded and struggling to cope with demands. These demands can be related to finances, work, relationship, and other situation, but anything that poses a real or perceived challenge or threat to a person's well-being can cause stress. The symptoms can be both physical and psychological. Short-term stress can be helpful, but long-term stress is linked to various health conditions. We can prepare for stress by learning some self-management tips and through meditation

Why do we need to deal with it?

Stress causes insomnia, depression, Suicidal tendencies, and decline in immunity, the digestive system slows down, hypertension, higher risk of heart attack and stroke, headaches, anxiety and weight gain

What is Blissful Living?

A living which is empowered by meditation and wisdom leads to self-realization and self-actualization. Love for everyone, sensitivity for nature and mindfulness of others is some obvious by-product of a meditative life. A living in which we grow in outer world while being responsible and resting in inner peace and happiness through mediation.
