

Message

Another session at Amrita Shergil Girls' Hostel has gone by and a new one beckons. I am glad welcoming students to the hostel- into a life of camaraderie and life-long learning. The experience of living in a hostel is one that is unique: imbuing its residents a feeling of loyalty, community living and friendship. The new residents of the hostel will be given an opportunity to live life on the most fulfilling terms. The Hostel Handbook of Rules will act as a guiding principle for the residents to make them aware of their rights and duties. Its implementation, in fact is a fair barometer of the successful running of a hostel and I am sure every resident will follow its tenets in essence.

Amrita Shergil Girls' Hostel has completed almost two- and a half years of its existence and every day presents an opportunity for learning. We are perhaps, past our teething problems, but the challenges are omnipresent and manifest themselves in different ways. Despite the challenges, every effort is made to provide an environment of safety, peace and intellectual stimulation to the residents. An alert security net, assistance in the form of helpful attendants, a well-informed clerk and a dedicated cleaner helps to keep the hostel in perfect order. The Warden is constantly alive to the needs of the residents and in tandem with the staff resolves problems and preempts any requirements that may arise.

The hostel has facilities which help students in their health and happiness. The Mess provides hygienic and nutritious food to the residents while the Common Room has newspapers and a television for news and entertainment. This year, we intend to install a fire- fighting system as well as closed- circuit cameras so as to ensure safety and security of the residents.

The month of March 2016 was a momentous month for Amrita Shergil Girls'

Hostel as we bade farewell to our first batch of outgoing students. The moment was both reflective and privileged as the students remembered how they spent the best days of their student life here. As a hostel, we were proud that this home has been able to nurture its first batch of residents who hold their hostel with the highest regard.

I wish good luck to all the residents and allude to Amrita Shergil whose 103rd birth anniversary was celebrated this year. She was far ahead of her times and this spirit must be a fit inspiration for the residents of Amrita Shergil Girls' Hostel.

HOSTEL ON THE CAMPUS

The Amrita Shergil Girls Hostel has almost completed two and a half years of its functioning and it has been quite a journey. Beginning with tiny building blocks, the hostel has now taken shape and has become the pride of its residents. Like Amrita Shergil, the famous painter who achieved much in a short life with her creativity and talent, so also the hostel aims at becoming a premier institution in as short a span as possible.

A hostel is a home away from home. Aware of the special needs and requirements of students, who come from far-flung places to this centre of learning, the Panjab University Regional Centre, Ludhiana tries to provide them a safe, secure and affordable accommodation.

The University Hostel takes pains to give its students a neat and clean environment and a comfortable place to live in. There is a Warden, security guards and attendants on duty round the clock. The hostel has a dining hall and a visitors' lounge. The mess provides a balanced diet at reasonable rates. The Common Room is fairly well equipped with newspapers. A television for entertainment and information has also been provided.

Architecturally, the hostels are aesthetically laid out with plenty of open space and a lot of greenery. The rooms are comfortable, fitted with fan, lights and good furniture. Each floor of the hostel has several verandahs and balconies.

Comforts are important but they are not enough. A human being finds meaning of life through interaction with others and for this, resident students are encouraged to participate in cultural and social activities. Colorful evenings of song and dance are not unusual on the campus. Talent shows, dramatics and literary events are organized from time to time. The inmates of a hostel are encouraged to live in harmony, like one big family, lending each other a helping hand when required, mutually cooperating to make hostel life a rich and fruitful experience.

There is no doubt that during these formative years in the hostel, life-long bonds are created and friendships cemented. This is a time, which will stand out in memory as a golden period. University experience is an important milestone in an individual's life, the stepping-stone to an adult life of responsibility and care. The Amrita Shergil Girls' Hostel of Panjab University Regional Centre, Ludhiana tries to provide an ideal atmosphere for a healthy, all round development of personality and a launching pad for a glorious career ahead.

Living in a hostel presupposes a high degree of integrity, consciousness, cooperation, tolerance and hard work for a bright future and good image of our institution.
